Our holy father pope Leo the .x. that now is cōsideryng the kinde charite of our loide Iesu christe whiche for the loue and redēption of al mākynde byd suffer his moſte dolorous passiō both exaite all christe people to charitable workes: gyfynge to the in recōpē of theyr charite the moſte abundant indulgēces of the tresour of our mother the holy churchē. And where as dyuers & many holy fathers popes of Rome haue gyue indulgēce & plenary remission moſte habidatly to euery mā & woman whiche that writte his name in the booke of the sayd hospital: where as the deputies of the same hospital shall erecte the cōfessourite of the sayd hospital: to become a brother or syner of the sayd hospital puttyng thei cheryngē hādes after thei habilitie: and the archbierme & distrector of the sayd deputies to the chiefe of doze lymped to the head of the foresayd hospital: for the mayntenyng of the charitable workes of mercy done in the sayd hospital and in the membres of the same as in cristenyng and syndyng of poze childe caste out vnberceded/yll. Suchey-me they be of sufficient age: & able to some craſte or seruyce: or to be married. And also as in receyvyng of poze opphas and womē syng in childe bedde. Also syne men and womē: & those that be unpōssyble by age. And also pylgryms passyng by dyuers countres: and there to nourish and sus-teyne them. And if it forstune them to dye to bury them in cristen buriall. wherfoze our sayd holy father hath cōfirmed theſe indulgēces and plenary remissions. and in effecte hath graunted the same afnewe: as both folowe.
